YS Jagan Extends Sankranthi Greetings to Telugu Community
Amaravati, Jan., 13: In a message to mark the Sankranthi festival, YSRCP chief YS Jagan Mohan Reddy has conveyed his warm wishes to the Telugu people. He highlighted the significance of the festival as a celebration of culture, traditions, and the bond with one's native villages. YS Jagan expressed that the festivities, which include the Bhogi bonfires, intricate rangoli designs, hymns sung by Haridasus, performances featuring decorated bulls, kite flying, and the sight of lush green fields, infuse a sense of vibrancy and joy into the villages during this time.

He further wished for every family in the state to celebrate Bhogi, Sankranthi, and Kanuma with great joy, emphasising the rich cultural heritage associated with these auspicious occasions.

CM participates in Sankranthi Celebrations in Naravaripalle

From Our Staff Reporter Tirupati, January 13: On the occasion of Sankranti festival, CM Chandrababu Naidu inaugurated and laid the foundation stone of several important projects in his hometown Naravaripalle. In particular, the CM inaugurated the tarred road from Rangampet - Bhimavaram to Lingshwara Temple. He also laid the foundation stone at Moolapalli Lake at a cost of Rs. 126 crore to bring Krishna water from the Neeva Branch Canal to provide irrigation water to the people of Chandragiri Mandal.

As part of the development of Swarna Naravaripalli, the CM inaugurated the 33/11 KV substation built at a cost of Rs 4.2 crore using advanced technology. He also started a natural farming model plantation and spraying of pesticides using drones. The Chief Minister inaugurated the new building of the Skill Development Center. CM Chandrababu launched various development programs related to SV University, Mahila University and Ruia Hospital. Meanwhile, CM Chandrababu Naidu along with his family members arrived in his hometown Naravaripalle to participate in the Sankranti celebrations. Along with Chandrababu, his wife Nara Bhuvaneshwari, son Minister Nara Lokesh, daughter-in-law Nara Brahmani and other family members participated in the celebrations along with the villagers. On this occasion, the entertaining games, three-man competitions and Rangavallu organized in the village impressed everyone.

The Chandrababu couple watched the sports competitions along with the triathlon competitions with interest. The couple presented prizes to the children who won the competitions. Children studying in government schools around Naravaripalle participated in the games. The Chandrababu couple took a group photo with the children from each school separately. Along with everyone else, children from the Nara and Nandamuri families participated in the rural games.

The winners were presented with prizes along with everyone else. The competitions were organized in the ground in front of Chandrababu's house and prizes were presented. In particular, the CM's grandson Nara Devansh, along with his friends, enthusiastically participated in various rural games and delighted everyone. Contrary to the culture of the parads, the Chief Minister interacted with the people in his hometown Naravaripalle. After giving prizes to those who participated in sports competitions, petitions were received along the way on his way home. People expressed their happiness that the Chief Minister himself received petitions from them. People from neighboring districts came to give petitions to the Chief Minister. Apart from receiving petitions, the CM also gave orders to the concerned officials on the spot for a solution.

Minister Narayana starts road works in Karlapudi Amaravati

From Our Staff Reporter Amaravati, Jan., 13: AP Municipal Minister Narayana commented that land pooling is underway for several projects in Amaravati. He said that 1000 acres were given for pooling on the first day in 3 villages of Amaravati mandal. This means that 25 percent of land pooling has been completed in the three villages. Minister Narayana and MLA Bashyam Praveen laid the foundation stone for road works in Karlapudi, Amaravati mandal on Tuesday. Farmers asked the minister, who went to the inauguration of land pooling yesterday, to lay the road. As soon as the Ananthavaram was laid. The minister issued instructions to the contract company to complete the road construction within a week. He said that he specially appreciates the farmers who gave their lands. He said that MLA Praveen is convincing the farmers from afar. He said that for the development of Amaravati, an Inner Ring Road and an International Sports City are necessary. He said that 80 percent of the land will be acquired through land pooling within a month. He revealed that once 80 percent pooling is completed, a master plan will be designed and tenders will be called. He said that two rows of roads will be completed first in the plots given to the farmers. He said that a question was raised in the Gram Sabha yesterday that the 3.9-kilometer road in Karlapudi is not in good condition. Minister Narayana stated that the foundation stone for the road construction was immediately laid. The work will be completed as soon as possible.

Inter practical exams to begin on Jan 21

From Our Staff Reporter Anantapur, Jan., 13: A district-level coordination committee meeting was held at the Revenue Bhavan on Monday to review and finalise arrangements for the smooth conduct of the Intermediate Public Examinations (IPE) Practical and Theory scheduled in Anantapur district from January to March 2026.

The meeting was chaired by the Collector and District Magistrate, Anantapur, Shiv and attended by the SP, District Revenue Officer, District Educational Officer, District Vocational Education Officer, District Medical and Health Officer, and senior officials from APSDC, APSRTC, Postal, Labour, and Public Relations departments. District Revenue Officer Malola has directed officials of all concerned departments to take special measures to ensure the smooth and successful conduct of the intermediate examinations scheduled to begin across the district from January 21. Officials reviewed security arrangements for confidential examination material, including armed guards at the district strong room and police escorts for transportation of question papers and answer scripts. The Police Department was instructed to provide full bandobust at all 64 theory examination centres and enforce prohibitory orders under Section 144 to prevent unauthorised entry. Revenue officials were directed to deploy tahsildars and deputy tahsildars for flying squads, while the Education Department was asked to ensure availability of examination halls, furniture, and invigilators. Special emphasis was laid on uninterrupted power supply during practical examinations (January 27 to February 10) and theory examinations (February 23 to March 24).

The Medical and Health Department was instructed to deploy medical staff with first-aid facilities at all centres. APSRTC was asked to operate special bus services to ensure students reach examination centres on time. The Labour Department was directed to close xerox centres within 100 metres of examination halls during exam hours.

The Postal Department will handle daily dispatch of answer script bundles through Speed Post. The Public Relations Department was tasked with wide publicity on examination schedules, including Ethics and Human Values and Environmental Education papers.
